In re: Marc J. Randazza,
Attorney at Law, Bar No. 12265

Case No. 2:19-cv-01765-MMD
ORDER OF SUSPENSION

I. SUMMARY

This is an attorney discipline matter. Before the Court is Marc J. Randazza's response to the Court's Order to Show Cause ("OSC") why he should not be suspended from practice before this Court following the Order Approving Conditional Guilty Plea Agreement filed by the Nevada Supreme Court ("NSC") on October 10, 2018. (ECF Nos. 1 (OSC), 3 (the "Response").) As further explained below, the Court will suspend Mr. Randazza from practice before this Court because this Court has neither the obligation, resources, nor inclination to monitor Mr. Randazza's compliance with the probationary conditions the NSC imposed on him. However, Mr. Randazza may file a petition for reinstatement once he has fully discharged those conditions and can produce a certificate of good standing from the NSC reflecting the same.

II. BACKGROUND

Mr. Randazza was suspended by the NSC following his conditional guilty plea to a charge that he violated "RPC 1.8(a) (conflict of interest: current clients: specific rules) and RPC 5.6 (restrictions on right to practice)." (ECF No. 3 at 15.) While Mr. Randazza's suspension was stayed, he is currently subject to several probationary conditions imposed by the NSC. (Id. at 17.) Until at least April 10, 2020, Mr. Randazza must: (1) "stay out of trouble;" (2) successfully complete 20 hours of ethics CLE in addition to his normal CLE requirements; and (3) seek the advice of an independent and unaffiliated

1 ethics attorney in each relevant jurisdiction before obtaining any conflicts of interest
2 waivers. (Id. at 3, 15, 17.)

3 This Court issued the OSC as to why Mr. Randazza should not be suspended from 4 practice in this Court on September 6, 2019. (ECF No. 1.) Mr. Randazza timely filed his
5 Response on October 3, 2019. (ECF No. 3.) In his Response, he argues that this Court
6 should allow him to continue practicing before it because he is still allowed to practice law
7 before the Nevada state courts, and he is currently complying with the probationary
8 conditions the NSC imposed on him. (Id. at 3-5.) He also argues that his suspension from 9 practice by this Court would either be gravely unjust, or his misconduct does not justify 10 suspension by this Court. (Id. at 3.) He further notes that other federal court have 11 continued to allow him to practice while he is subject to the NSC's probationary conditions.
12 (Id. at 5-6.)

13 III. DISCUSSION

14 This Court imposes reciprocal discipline on a member of its bar when that person
15 is suspended or otherwise disciplined by a state court unless it determines that the state's 16 disciplinary adjudication was improper. See In re Kramer, 282 F.3d 721, 724 (9th Cir.
17 2002). Specifically, the Court will only decline to impose reciprocal discipline if the 18 attorney subject to discipline presents clear and convincing evidence that:

19 (A) the procedure in the other jurisdiction was so lacking in notice or opportunity to 20 be heard as to constitute a deprivation of due process; (B) there was such an 21 infirmity of proof establishing the misconduct as to give rise to a clear conviction 22 that the court should not accept as final the other jurisdiction's conclusion(s) on that subject; (C) imposition of like discipline would result in a grave injustice; or (D) other substantial reasons justify not accepting the other jurisdiction's conclusion(s).

23 LR IA 11-7(e)(3); see also In re Kramer, 282 F.3d at 724-25 (stating that the attorney 24 bears the burden by clear and convincing evidence).

25 The Court will suspend Mr. Randazza from practice before this Court because the 26 NSC's disciplinary adjudication regarding Mr. Randazza following his conditional guilty
27 plea appears to have been proper, and he presents no clear and convincing evidence to 28 the contrary. Procedurally, Mr. Randazza did not submit a certified copy of the entire

1 record from the NSC or present any argument as to why less than the entire record will
2 suffice. See LR IA 11-7(e)(3). Substantively, while Mr. Randazza does appear to be
3 allowed to practice in the Nevada state courts, he is also subject to probationary
4 conditions that this Court has neither the obligation, resources, nor inclination to monitor.
5 (ECF No. 3 at 17.) And the Court sees no substantial reasons not to suspend Mr.
6 Randazza based on its review of the record. See LR IA 11-7(e)(3). The Court will therefore 7 suspend Mr. Randazza.

8 That said, Mr. Randazza is free to petition the Court for reinstatement under LR IA
9 11-7(i) assuming he is able to successfully complete his term of probation with the NSC.
10 Any petition for reinstatement should not be filed until Mr. Randazza has successfully
11 discharged each and every probationary condition imposed on him by the NSC, and he 12 is able to present both a certificate of good standing from the NSC and evidence sufficient
13 to establish that his practice in the Nevada state courts is fully unencumbered by any 14 probationary or other conditions stemming from his conditional guilty plea or any other
15 discipline imposed on him by the NSC.

16 IV. CONCLUSION

17 It is therefore ordered that Marc J. Randazza, Bar No. 12265, is hereby suspended
18 from practice in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada.

Attorney at Law, Bar No. 12265

Case No. 2:19-cv-01765-MMD

ORDER

I. SUMMARY

This is an attorney discipline matter. Before the Court is Marc Randazza's petition for reinstatement (the "Petition").<sup>1</sup> (ECF No. 14.) As further explained below, the Court will grant Mr. Randazza's Petition.

II. BACKGROUND

Mr. Randazza was suspended by the Nevada Supreme Court ("NSC") following his conditional guilty plea to a charge that he violated "RPC 1.8(a) (conflict of interest: current clients: specific rules) and RPC 5.6 (restrictions on right to practice)." (ECF No. 3 at 15.)

Upon receiving notice of his suspension by the NSC, the Court issued an order to show cause why Mr. Randazza should not also be suspended by this Court. (ECF No. 1 ("OSC").) Mr. Randazza filed a response to the OSC, arguing he should not be suspended by this Court. (ECF No. 3.) The Court nonetheless suspended him because he remained subject to probationary conditions imposed by the NSC. (ECF No. 5 (the "Suspension Order").) Mr. Randazza then filed an emergency motion to alter or amend the Suspension Order (ECF No. 8), which the Court denied (ECF No. 12).<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Mr. Randazza also filed an emergency motion for a hearing on his Petition. (ECF No. 17.) Because the Court will grant the Petition, the Court will deny the emergency motion for a hearing as moot.

Case 2:19-cv-01765-MMD *SEALED* Document 18 Filed 06/09/20 Page 2 of 3

1 The Petition followed.<sup>3</sup> (ECF No. 14.) In his Petition, Mr. Randazza asks to be
2 reinstated primarily because he has successfully discharged the NSC's probationary
3 conditions. (Id. at 2.) In most pertinent part, he attached a letter from the State Bar of 4 Nevada confirming that he has successfully discharged the probationary conditions the 5 NSC imposed on him. (Id. at 16.) Mr. Randazza also submitted a declaration explaining 6 he has clients with cases in this district who would like him to represent them (id. at 11-
7 14), and some declarations from some of his clients explaining they would like Mr.
8 Randazza to represent them (id. at 19-26). Mr. Randazza previously submitted a current
9 certificate of good standing from the State Bar of Nevada. (ECF No. 10-3.)

10 III. DISCUSSION

11 Local Rule IA 11-7(i) states that an attorney who is the subject of an order of 12 suspension "may petition for reinstatement to practice before this court or for modification
13 of the order as may be supported by good cause and the interests of justice." LR IA 11-
14 7(i). The Rule further provides: "if the attorney was readmitted by the supervising court or 15 the discipline imposed by the supervising court was modified or satisfied, the petition must 16 explain the situation with specificity, including a description of any restrictions or 17 conditions imposed on readmission by the supervising court." Id. However, the decision
18 as to whether and under what circumstances the attorney will be reinstated to practice
19 before this Court is left to the discretion of the Chief Judge, or other reviewing Judge if 20 the Chief Judge refers the matter to another judge. See id.; see also LR IA 11-7(a).

21 The Court will grant the Petition because Mr. Randazza has sufficiently 22 demonstrated he successfully discharged the NSC's probationary conditions and is an
23 attorney in good standing with the State Bar of Nevada. (ECF Nos. 10-3, 14 at 16.)
24

25 <sup>2</sup>The Court issued this order on November 27, 2019, and received a certified mail
26 receipt indicating it was mailed to Mr. Randazza's counsel that same day. (ECF No. 13.)
27 However, both Mr. Randazza and his counsel claim they never received that order. (ECF 28 Nos. 15 (minute order explaining in response to a letter from Mr. Randazza's counsel inquiring about a ruling on the emergency motion to alter or amend judgment that the Court had already issued an order denying it on November 27, 2019), 17 at 4, 17-1 at 3.)

<sup>3</sup>Mr. Randazza followed up with a letter as well. (ECF No. 16.)

Case 2:19-cv-01765-MMD *SEALED* Document 18 Filed 06/09/20 Page 3 of 3

Moreover, Mr. Randazza's Petition demonstrates understanding of the Court's prior Suspension Order granting him leave to petition this Court for reinstatement once he could show that he is able to practice in Nevada state courts unencumbered by any probationary conditions. (ECF No. 5 at 3.) The Court thus finds that Mr. Randazza has shown cause to be readmitted to the bar of this Court.

IV. CONCLUSION

It is therefore ordered that Mr. Randazza's renewed petition for reinstatement (ECF No. 14) is granted.

It is further ordered that Mr. Randazza's emergency motion for a hearing (ECF No. 17) is denied as moot.

DATED THIS 9th day of June 2020.

MISCELLANEOUS PETITION FOR ADMISSION PRO HAC VICE SUPREME COURT ARTICLE II, RULE 9(A)

Sean M. McAteer hereby requests that Marc J. Randazza

Petitioner

be admitted pro hac vice in the above-case/agency proceeding as counsel with local associate counsel identified below, on the following grounds (Please check appropriate grounds and provide specifics as noted):

☒ The case/agency proceeding involves the following complex areas of the law, in which pro hac vice counsel concentrates: (Petitioner shall specify the area of law at issue and the basis upon which s/he certifies that the pro hac vice counsel concentrates in said area, including past cases in this or any other jurisdiction. Detailed information about past cases, including docket sheets, must be provided. Attach additional pages if needed.)

Attorney Randazza concentrates heavily in defamation and First Amendment law. Defendants require this level of experience in these complex areas of law, and specifically requests Marc J. Randazza to represent Defendants.

See attached past cases.

☒ Pro hac vice counsel's long-standing representation of the client: (Petitioner shall specify all facts to support the long-standing attorney-client relationship at issue, including dates and extent of the representation. Detailed information about past cases, including docket sheets, must be provided. Attach additional pages if needed.)

Mr. Kearney has been represented by Marc J. Randazza and Randazza Legal Group, PLLC. since May of 2020. Mr. Kearney is represented by Attorney Randazza for ongoing First Amendment and other various legal advice.

☒ The local bar lacks experience in the field involved: (Petitioner shall specify all facts to support the claim that the local bar lacks the expertise necessary to competently handle this case. Attach additional pages if needed.)

Attorney Randazza is a member and former President of the First Amendment Lawyers Association. There are no members of this esteemed organization in Rhode Island. A Google search of "rhode island first amendment lawyer" yields only 2 attorneys on the first page, in contrast to the fleet of results for "rhode island criminal defense lawyer".

☒ The case/agency proceeding involves complex legal questions under the law of a foreign jurisdiction with which pro hac vice counsel is familiar: (Petitioner shall specify all facts to support the claim that the case/agency proceeding involves the existence of legal questions involving the law of a foreign jurisdiction with which pro hac vice counsel is familiar and the basis for that familiarity. Detailed information about past cases, including docket sheets, must be provided. Attach additional pages if needed.)

There is an associated case in the District Court of Leominster, Massachusetts, where Mr. Kearney, a Massachusetts citizen, has obtained a Harassment Prevention Order against Ms. St. Angelo. Attorney Randazza is admitted in Massachusetts and is counseling Mr. Kearney on that matter in connection with the defense of this matter.

☐ The case/agency proceeding requires extensive discovery in a foreign jurisdiction convenient to pro hac vice counsel: (Petitioner shall specify all facts to support the need for extensive discovery proceedings in a foreign jurisdiction with which pro hac vice counsel is familiar. Detailed information about past cases, including docket sheets, must be provided. Attach additional pages if needed.)

☐ It is a criminal case, and pro hac vice counsel is defendant's counsel of choice.

C.A. No. PC-2021-00224

ATTACHMENT TO MISCELLANEOUS PETITION FOR ADMISSION PRO HAC VICE OF MARC J. RANDAZZA

Applicant, Marc J. Randazza, concentrates his practice in First Amendment law, the area of law that is the central focus of the issues in this case. For example, in Tobinick v. Novella, No. 9:14-CV-80781, 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 43628 (S.D. Fla. Apr. 2, 2015), Applicant defended against defamation and Lanham Act claims by a practitioner of spurious medical treatments against an attempt, through injunctive relief, to take down and preclude legitimate criticism of the practitioner. The docket sheet is attached. And, in analogous proceedings in Massachusetts under Mass. Gen. Laws, ch. 258E, Applicant defended his client against the issuance of harassment prevention orders that were sought on account of her First Amendment-protected speech. See Liu v. Hutchings, Docket No. 1681CV1696 (Middlesex Superior Ct., Mass.) and Valtchanova Georgiou v. Hutchings, Docket No. 2047RO0259 (Concord Dist. Ct., Mass.) (docket sheets unavailable). As First Amendment law is his primary area of practice, other examples can be provided as necessary.

03/26/2015	167	PAPERLESS ORDER denying without prejudice Defendant Novella's 164 MOTION in Limine to Exclude Expert Witnesses. The Court is mindful of the legal principles governing the admissibility of expert testimony under Fed. R. Civ. P. 702. Defendant Novella can argue his position with respect to the admissibility of expert testimony to the Court at the time of the hearing, without any prejudice that otherwise may exist if this case was tried before a jury. The Court may determine that such objections may be better presented through cross-examination of the witnesses rather than exclusion of the witnesses and/or expert opinions. At the hearing, the Court will determine what weight to give the testimony, including but not limited to determining whether the testimony should be considered that of a fact witness or an expert witness. To the extent the Court allows the witnesses to testify as experts, the Court will consider all argument of counsel regarding the admissibility of any expert testimony and/or opinions of expert witnesses at that time as well. 07/08/2015	212	PAPERLESS OMNIBUS ORDER. The 205 MOTION for Sanctions by Steven Novella is denied without prejudice, as the Court believes that the issues raised therein would be more suitably decided after the conclusion of the case. Plaintiffs' 210 MOTION for Extension of Time to File Response/Reply/Answer as to 205 MOTION for Sanctions is therefore denied as moot. Plaintiffs' 209 MOTION For Relief Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(d) is granted, insofar as the following: (1) the Court will defer ruling on the 206 MOTION for Summary Judgment by Steven Novella; (2) discovery, including written and expert discovery, will continue until August 3, 2015; (3) accordingly, Defendant Novella must respond to Plaintiffs' written discovery requests within fifteen (15) days of their service as contemplated at the status conference, unless he believes that doing so would contravene the Federal or Local Rules; (4) the discovery deadline is extended until August 17, 2015 only for the deposition of Jay Novella, see DE 209 Ex. 1 para. 5; (5) the 206 MOTION for Summary Judgment by Steven Novella will be deemed filed on August 17, 2015, and Plaintiffs will have the time contemplated by the Federal and Local Rules to respond to it. In line with this ruling, 208 Defendant's MOTION to Continue Hearing Date is granted and Plaintiffs' 211 MOTION for Extension of Time to File Response/Reply/Answer as to 206 MOTION for Summary Judgment is denied as moot. The Court will reset the hearing on the summary judgment motion by separate order. Signed by Judge Robin L. Rosenberg on 7/8/2015. (cgn) (Entered: 07/08/2015)

12/23/2015	319	PAPERLESS ORDER denying as moot 301 Defendant Steven Novella M.D.'s Motion for Extension of Time. Insofar as Defendant requests additional time for Plaintiffs and their counsel to respond, this is denied as moot because these parties have already responded. Insofar as Plaintiffs' response at docket entry 306 argues that the Court should deny Defendant's Omnibus Motion for Attorneys Fees and Costs, at docket entry 292, due to Defendant's failure to comply with Local Rule 7.3(b), the Court exercises its discretion not to do so. Given the prior orders addressing fee issues at docket entries 190 and 193, as well as the history of this litigation, the Court finds Plaintiffs were not prejudiced by the failure to strictly comply with the rule, to the extent it applies to the fees Defendant requests.
